Pastor's Note

After the rejuvenation and renewal of Resurrection Sunday, I often wonder what else. I also wonder why Mother's Day comes right after Easter. Well, there may be or may not be answers, but let us think about it this way.

The women were the first to arrive at the tomb of Jesus Christ. But then, isn't it true that women hold up the sky? Isn't it true that women make things bloom? Isn't it true that women make life worth living? Among many things women do, each of us owe something to a woman who has been, is or will be in our living.

Yes, women play different roles; mothers, sisters, aunties, grandmothers, nieces, cousins and daughters. But if the truth is told, they bring out the best in most of us. They made many of us bloom, so others will see and smell the flowers of their labor, because they planted seeds of love.

The blooming is new life. So we can believe that the new life given to us by Jesus Christ on Resurrection Sunday can always be a part of our living as we keep blooming. We can bloom like beautiful flowers that can be shared not just on Mother's Day but all the days as we live out our faith in our families, our churches, our communities and the world.

As we live, let us stand in solidarity with all women, mothers, and girls and give a message of hope to all we meet. as the Risen Christ did on Resurrection Sunday.

Happy Mother's Day to all women in all places and at all times!

Pastor Alecia

Mother's Day - May 14

Though named Mother's Day, I affirm Women's Day, because women play different roles in the lives of many; some, as mothers, grandmothers, aunties, sisters, daughters, cousins and nieces. May God richly bless each of you this day and always.

Pastor Alecia

As our lives are enriched, it is my prayer that we will encourage, empower and inspire others. Most of all that we will make extraordinary disciples of Jesus Christ.

Our stewardship, our sharing of all that we have, by God's grace, makes our ministries work. All of our missions and ministries require support: our time, our talents, our gifts, and our financial resources.

Education

When a child comes to Sunday School and has something to pray about – our hearts are warmed. When we hear from a parent that their child wanted to lift something up in prayer at home – we feel empowered ourselves. When one of our students say that they prayed in school – we almost say MISSION ACCOMPLISHED.

We in the Fisk Sunday School have heard all these things. We do recognize that we are all under construction. Come and take part in children's or adult's Sunday School and keep the project of YOU on track. Watch for mini Summer Educational Happenings and take part.

Where is the Bible in Your House?

May we suggest that your children know that the Bible has a place in their home? Today I offer you this verse- Hebrews 13:2

“ Don’t forget to show hospitality to strangers for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it.”

PRAYER: Dear God – May my child/ren always choose to be kind to each other and to everyone else. Amen.

God does not give us a list saying these are the people who we should be kind to. He gives us a command to love our neighbor.

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE FOR ALL WOMEN:

*Christ has no body now, but yours
No hands, no feet on earth, but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which Christ looks compassion into the world. Yours are the feet with which Christ walks to do good. Yours are the hands with which Christ blesses the world.*
