Reflections from Pastor Mark

I was shocked the other morning, Margaret and I taking our terrier for her early morning walk, to notice a large maple tree half-turned a glorious red-orange, looking for all the world almost to be on fire.

Nothing unusual about that, you're thinking – and you're right. The color comes every fall and it is stupendous and wonderful – but hardly a surprise. It just goes to show where my mind was – or rather where it wasn't: Fall seems to have snuck up when I wasn't looking. (After a long, rather slow-paced summer, September came with a roar of activity, everything happening at once, and I've been preoccupied with many, many things.)

John Lennon wrote: "Life is what happens to you while you're making other plans." Pretty good line, I think. But more accurate, I believe, would be: "Life is what happens while you're looking the other way."

That is not to say that the tasks which occupy my time are not real or important. Much of what I do is well worth doing and all of it is certainly real. But sometimes – and don't tell me I'm having senior moments! – you find yourself lifting your eyes from whatever has preoccupied your time and think: Where did the day, the week, the month go? How did it get to be the beginning of fall – when it was just the end of August?

Now, before you get to thinking that I am whining about being too busy, I want to tell you that's not what I'm on about here. No, not at all. I am reminding myself – and anybody who cares to read this – of the pleasure and yes, Christian duty, of paying attention to the wonderful life – in this wonderful world – that God has given us. I sometimes think that all of God's creation conspires to wake us up. Priest and poet, Gerard Manley Hopkins wrote these famous words of praise (excerpted from The Grandeur of God):

*The world is charged with the grandeur of God.
It will flame out, like shining from shook foil;
It gathers to a greatness, like the ooze of oil
Crushed. . . .*

*And for all this, nature is never spent;
There lives the dearest freshness deep down things. . .*

Because the Holy Ghost over the bent World broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings.

I hope Father Hopkins will forgive me for mangling his wonderful poem (I suggest taking the time to read the full text) – but you get the point, I hope:

Life is precious

God's creation is beautiful

Every day is a gift to be lived

God bless this day to you – and you to the day.

Finance Update – October 2012

The fall season is a beautiful reminder of God’s many gifts to us. Financially, we continue on “Plan” after eight months, but we are not making progress on our need for growth in 2012. The faithful support of you the congregation continues to be a blessing, and we are spending wisely: Our financial update is little changed from the September update:

- Your financial support is within 5% of Budget through August, down somewhat from July
- We are spending at, or less than our budgeted expenses, which were targeted at much less than what we are called to do as a faithful congregation
- We continue to pray for improvements in our financial position.

We began the year, and our Stewardship Plan, with the forced requirement to spend less, and achieve less. Our Plan still requires us to “borrow” from our resources in order to fund all of our planned ministries in 2012. And those ministries were cut back due to our budget constraints. Our faith and our stewardship require us to do more. As we enter the fall, we must prayerfully and purposefully work to grow our church spiritually...and our finances will follow.

The ministries of Fisk touch so many people in so many ways. Those ministries, as always, depend upon the financial support of each and every one of us. As a congregation, we have responded in the past, and with prayer, cooperation, intentional dedication to growing our church, and HIS grace, we will respond and succeed in 2012.

Members of Finance Committee, which includes representatives from other committees at Fisk: Michael Bruns (Chair), Pastor Mark Goad, Debi Henry (Lay Leader), Thom Townsend (Chair-Admin Board), David Cail (Treasurer), Sherry Culver (Financial Secretary), Tom Carney (Trustees), Ernest Acquaaah-Harrison (SPRC), Greg Dickinson, Larry Drolet, Jen Garrant, Dave Longworth.

OCTOBER 7, 2012

World Communion Sunday is celebrated the first Sunday in October. This day has taken on new relevancy and depth of meaning in a world where globalization often has undermined peace and justice - and in a time when fear divides the peoples of God's earth. Come celebrate World Communion Sunday at 10:30 a.m. World Communion Sunday is designated as a "Special Sunday" in the UMC and you have the opportunity to give a special offering that provides scholarships for U.S. and International students and assists racial and ethnic minority persons pursuing various avenues of ministry

Laity Lines From Our Lay Leader

“Can’t sleep?
Don’t count sheep....talk to the Shepherd!”

Twenty Questions! Who are you? Can you name three things that you are grateful for? Can you name five people in our congregation that you think are wonderful? What do you want to do when you grow up? Can you describe your ideal self? Are you living the life of your dreams? How many choir members sang in church last Sunday? What is the title of #156 in our United Methodist Hymnal? What are you busy with today? Are you putting any parts of your life on hold? (You know what’s coming next!) Why? Imagine - $1 million dollars is yours, tax free. What are you going to do with the money? What is your mission? Can you name a time when you were most inspired? Most motivated? Most charged up? Do you have a life scripture? Is there a specific parable that comforts you? If you could be a cartoon character or a television/movie character for 24 hours, who would that be and why? How often do you clean between your toes? What is your favorite Christmas carol?

MEET OUR NEW BISHOP! Tuesday, Oct. 9th, 5 p.m. to 6 p.m., the Bishop, clergy and laity have dinner together followed by a 6 p.m. to 8 p. m. session at the First UMC in Hudson. From the Bishop’s Office – “The session will open with a short worship service, but after that, our time together will be a very informal time for clergy and laity to share their dreams and visions for our Conference and ask questions so he can get a better understanding of who we are and we can get to know him better as well.” Please contact Pastor Mark by October 2nd if you would like to attend. Bishop Sudarshana Devadhar was assigned to the New England Conference – 600+ congregations in six states.

Ministry of Caring: Prayer Chain!! Fisk Memorial’s Prayer Chain is a group of concerned and caring people who are praying for you. We know how important and comforting it is that there are people who are praying for you, me, family members, friends and our world. If you would like to be a part of our prayer chain and would like to receive a telephone call or email once a week, please let me know by the end of October.

Starbucks! Food donations from Starbucks continue to be picked up during the week and on Sunday’s. The Salvation Army’s Miracle Kitchen, Family Promise Metrowest, Pathways Family Shelter, Turning Point Shelter, our coffee hour at times, and two domestic violence shelters under Jane Doe, Inc. are our current recipients of these items. If you are interested in helping out on a Sunday or Wednesday with a pick-up, please contact me.

Family Promise Metrowest! October 14th, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. they are having a fundraising cookout at Stop & Shop in Natick. If you are interested in helping out, please let Debbie Friscino or me know. Feel free to stop by!

Prayers, Presence, Gifts, Service, Witness! How are your membership vows doing this fall? Have you had a recent check-up or given yourself a report card? Need to serve somewhere at Fisk? Do something? Be involved? Talk with me or Pastor Mark
