Reflections from Pastor Xia

Dear family and friends of Fisk Memorial UMC;

Holiday greetings from your church home! As I am writing this, I realize that Advent is upon us, and another Thanksgiving is just around the corner. I am now sitting in my study, doing my morning routine—reading the Bible and meditating on the Scripture verses of the day. The passage Luke 17:11-19 just came to my mind. Jesus healed ten lepers. In my mind's eye, I can see the lepers walking, hobbling, scooting; joy filled their souls. Their faith in the faithful God saved them and made them clean. At the time, there was one, one out of ten, stopped, “came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus’ feet, and thanked him.”

To that one Jesus said “Your faith has made you well.” The Greek word used here for “well” also means “whole.” While the other nine were “healed,” this one was made complete and whole. The same Greek word is used in the story of Zaccheaus for “to be saved.” By having faith in Jesus Christ, all of them were healed of their leprosy. By returning to give thanks to Jesus, the one was made whole.

When thankfulness becomes an integral part of our life, our attitude toward life changes. We become more positive, loving, and humble. Now, I admit, it is difficult to thank God when the alarm goes off at 5:00am on a cold winter morning and I know I have to get up. It is difficult to thank God when your carefully planned weekend of relaxation dissolves into a mass of catch up chores. It is difficult to thank God when you, or someone you love, is hurting, either physically or spiritually. Yet, without thankfulness in our lives, we have no way to see positive things, joy, peace, love and hope.

Thankfulness. What an amazing word. In our prayer, we always begin with the word, “God, we thank you for ...”

Thankfulness is more than an act of good manners. It is a major component of our lives. So, what are you thankful for today? Whom do you give thanks to?

I ask you, this Thanksgiving, and throughout the Advent season, as you gather around your table, full of so many good things, to remember and to prepare— to remember not only the good gifts that God has granted you throughout this year, but to remember the God who has been with us through good times and bad, who has been constant in His faithfulness and mercy, who has given us the gift of clean water, fresh food, loving family and friends. And before we pass the turkey and pumpkin pie, stop for a moment and remember from whose hand we receive such things. And give Him thanks.

Meister Eckhart once said, “If the only prayer you ever say in your whole life is ‘thank you,’ that would suffice.” I am thankful for YOU. With a prayerful and thankful heart, let us prepare the way for peace and expect a brand new church year.

Advent and Christmas Blessings to all!

$ $ Finance Update – December 2014

We must report that we continue to find ourselves behind in Pledge support as of October 31st. The faithful support of you the congregation continues to be a blessing, but our ministries are in need.

Our position is:

Support and other income	$ 194,678
Expenses of ministry	$ 197,187
Deficit (10 months)	$ (2,509)

As a result we are spending wisely, and carefully managing our resources:

- Your financial support remains 10% below Budget, through October,
- We are spending less than our budgeted expenses to compensate, but expenses continue, and we may not be able to fully fund our valued ministries at our current rates,
- We continue to pray for improvements in our financial position.

Please do all you can to get your pledges in for 2014 so we can end on a positive note. If you have not given in the past, we would urge you to consider supporting our ministries. If you are current, we thank you, and ask that you consider increasing your support this year. We are currently “borrowing” from our long-term congregational assets in order to fund all of our planned ministries this year. We need your prayerful assistance.

The ministries of Fisk touch so many people in so many ways. As we enter the advent holiday period, we must prayerfully and purposefully work to grow our church spiritually...and our finances will follow.

Members of Finance Committee, which includes representatives from other committees at Fisk:

Michael Bruns (Chair), Pastor Xia, Dorothy Phillips (Lay Leader), Thom Townsend (Chair-Admin Board), David Cail (Treasurer), Sherry Culver (Financial Secretary), Geoff Del Sesto (Trustees), Tom Currie (SPRC), Larry Drolet, Frank Foss, Jen Garratt..

Ministry of Caring and Nurturing

You! Yeah, you! You are part of this church, this congregation, this community, this world. God's world. This world is full of need...sadness, illness, suffering, loneliness, hunger, pain. And every single thing (big and small) you have been doing to help other people get through their difficulties is working! God is super proud of you! God sees each and every wonderful thing you do to help others. And God thanks you!!

Keep your ears open to God's directions and to the opportunities He brings to you. Yes, they are meant for YOU! The opportunity to hug. The opportunity to smile. The opportunity to feed. The opportunity to heal. These opportunities are meant for YOU!

FISK wants to help you with all these opportunities to work for God. If you hear God asking you to help others, and you are not sure how to begin, call us. We have a list of those in need. We have creative ideas on how to help. We will support you. We will cheer you on!

Also, if you need God's loving hands to heal, uplift, and help YOU, call us!!!!!! God needs you too! He needs you to feel His love and His healing. Take the opportunity for God's hands and feet to work in your life. Contact Sarah Gates anytime: 802-522-3163 or sarahgates4@gmail.com

Ministry of Caring Mission Statement

As we affirm faith in God through our ministries, we claim a sacred place where Christ's love unites us with compassion and the caring of others. In order to make the love of Christ a real presence in the life of each person we reach within our faith community, our ministries:

- Extends support during the trials of life and celebrate the joys
- Leads persons to resources appropriate to their needs
- Encourages all to explore and maximize their individual spiritual gifts for the work of the church and to the glory of God.

To help and participate in the Ministry of Caring, please contact Pastor Xia or Sarah Gates. Meal preparation, transportation, help with household cleaning and fix-it chores, praying, visitation and listening are some of the ways you can help.

New Small Group Options

Do you want to try something a little different in Bible Study, Book Study or Worship? I want to create a few new small groups of 6-8 people, to experiment with gathering on-line, using Google Hangouts. One of my interests is offering Night Prayer during the week. I am also prepared to teach a 6 week course, "Exploring the Bible" by the Mass Bible Society. Are you interested in studying something more spiritual like prayer practices? The small group hangouts could take place most any day of the week, mornings, afternoons or evenings depending on the needs and interests of those who want to try this. All you need is internet access, a computer or tablet with a camera for video, and a desire to learn a new thing and share with a group of friends. This is open to any and all men, women and youth of the church. If you have a non-church friend you think might be interested, I can think of no better way to introduce them to the kind of community we already share with one another. If you are interested, I will collect up names. No need to go out for a meeting, you can even do this from a distance if you are traveling and out of the area. Please email your questions and let me know your interests. I can't wait to hear from you. Rev. Gates - deacongates@gmail.com

A VERY BIG THANK-YOU TO ALL

As chairperson for the UMW Country Fair I would like to extend a thank-you to all UMW women and church members who worked so hard to make our annual fair such a success. To date the fair raised $4,600 to help with mission work to aid women and children.

I especially acknowledge the help of the UMM with the fair luncheon. Your hard work is very special and the lunch was delicious!

And to all of those who came to the fair I thank-you for your patronage and hope you had a good time. I hope you feel as I do that it is a very special day in the life of Fisk Memorial United Methodist Church.

Church-wide Leadership Retreat and Pre-Retreat Survey

Planners: Visioning Team

Dorothy Phillips, Lay Leader

Please mark your calendars!! The Leadership Retreat for Fisk Memorial United Methodist Church is being planned for Saturday, January 31, 2015. All church members are invited to attend. (more details to follow about time and location). During the retreat, we will evaluate the current strategic plan and prioritize our activities and programs. Thus, we will develop our draft church calendar for 2015. The day will start with devotion to be led by God and His plans for Fisk Memorial United Methodist Church.

In preparation for the retreat, the Visioning Team will conduct a survey in which we hope most church members will participate. There will be two surveys; one for all church members and a second one for those currently in leadership roles. The survey will ask what our church has accomplished well and in what areas our church should focus, welcoming new ideas. Leaders will be asked about their committee's or team's accomplishments and areas of strategic plan that needs more focus or could be more effective.

Please plan to complete the survey during the Time of Fellowship in December 2014 or January 2015. We need your input. Then come to the retreat on January 31st to help Fisk become a healthy church.

If you have any questions, please ask a member of the Visioning Team: Marcia Hoyt, Michael Burns, Pastor Xia, Deborah Hernandez, Thom Townsend and Zackary Gates.

Young children are invited to our FREE Music and Movement class! We have musical instruments, guitar music, parades, singing with active movements. Everyone has a great time! The children and the parents love this time together on Saturday mornings.

2 Corinthians 9:7-8

We have received 54% of last year's commitments as of press time on November 21. Remember, all Commitments of Giving are treated with the utmost confidentiality, and not individually shared with any committee. Thank you, and God bless.
