

Music/Choir Director/Church Organist

Fisk Memorial United Methodist Church in Natick, Massachusetts is currently accepting letters of interest and resumes for the position of Music Minister. You would be our Choir Director/Church Organist to start in January 2019. The Music/Choir Director/Organist position is held by one person. Fisk has an average weekly attendance of 55-65 people with a Chancel Choir comprised of 10-12 people.

Objectives:

The first objective of the individual who serves as Music/Choir Director/Church Organist is to promote a music program which meets the needs of the entire population of the church and which focuses on service to the Lord and ministry to His people. The person hired would be expected to encourage the congregation to participate in corporate worship through music and to support the musical development of individuals within the choir and congregation as soloists or small groups. In addition, the individual will be responsible for working with the Senior Pastor and Worship Chairperson quarterly in planning music, and selecting and playing music on the organ and/or piano that supports the Christian year and promotes a worshipful experience in the service to our Lord Jesus Christ. The Music Director will be responsible for arranging substitutes in their absence.

About Natick:
